

Early Journal Content on JSTOR, Free to Anyone in the World

This article is one of nearly 500,000 scholarly works digitized and made freely available to everyone in the world by JSTOR.

Known as the Early Journal Content, this set of works include research articles, news, letters, and other writings published in more than 200 of the oldest leading academic journals. The works date from the mid-seventeenth to the early twentieth centuries.

We encourage people to read and share the Early Journal Content openly and to tell others that this resource exists. People may post this content online or redistribute in any way for non-commercial purposes.

Read more about Early Journal Content at <http://about.jstor.org/participate-jstor/individuals/early-journal-content>.

JSTOR is a digital library of academic journals, books, and primary source objects. JSTOR helps people discover, use, and build upon a wide range of content through a powerful research and teaching platform, and preserves this content for future generations. JSTOR is part of ITHAKA, a not-for-profit organization that also includes Ithaka S+R and Portico. For more information about JSTOR, please contact support@jstor.org.

PROCEEDINGS AT THE ANNUAL MEETING.

The American Peace Society held its Twenty-seventh Annual Meeting for business, in the vestry of Park street Church, on Monday, May 28th, at 3 o'clock, P. M. HON. AMASA WALKER, one of the Vice Presidents, was called to the Chair, and L. T. STODDARD chosen Recording Secretary pro tem. The report of a special committee from the Board of Directors on enlarging the Society's operations, was read and adopted. A series of resolutions from the Directors presented on their behalf by the Corresponding Secretary, were, after discussion and some modification, unanimously passed. The Treasurer's annual account duly audited, and showing a balance of $574.09 in the Treasury, was laid before the Society and accepted. The Corresponding Secretary then read in full the report of the Directors, which was adopted for publication, and the Secretary instructed to give an abstract at the public exercises in the evening. The Society then elected its officers for the ensuing year, (as given elsewhere,) and adjourned to the public exercises at 7½ o'clock in the evening.

The public exercises, held according to adjournment in Park street Church Hon. AMASA WALKER in the Chair, were opened with prayer and reading of the Scriptures, by the learned and venerable DR. JENKS, of Boston. The Secretary, Rev. DR. BECKWITH, gave an abstract of the report, and read the resolutions which had been adopted at the business meeting. The Address of Judge JAY, in his absence on account of his health, was then read with much force by Rev. R. W. CLARK, of Boston. A vote of thanks to the author was passed, and the address ordered to be published, after which the Society adjourned sine die.

ABSTRACT OF THE TREASURER'S REPORT.

American Peace Society in account with JOHN FIELD, Treasurer.

|                                                                       |            |
|-----------------------------------------------------------------------|------------|
| RECEIPTS—                                                      |            |
| Balance from last year's account.....                                 | $270 86   |
| Reported in Advocate of Peace, for August, 1854.....                  | 790 67     |
| “ “ “ “ September, 1854.....                                          | 1,556 55   |
| “ “ “ “ December, 1854.....                                           | 838 85     |
| “ “ “ “ May, 1855.....                                                | 1,360 38   |
| To be reported.....                                                   | 648 25     |
|                                                                       | <hr/>      |
|                                                                       | $5,345 56 |
| PAYMENTS—                                                      |            |
| For postage, and for the rent, care and other expenses of office..... | $431 77   |
| “ paper, printing, and other expenses connected with publications.... | 2,166 21   |
| “ agencies and travelling expenses.....                               | 2,106 99   |
| “ expenses of public meetings and other incidentals.....              | 66 50      |
| Balance to next account.....                                          | 574 09     |
|                                                                       | <hr/>      |
|                                                                       | $5,345 56 |

We have examined the foregoing account, and find it correctly cast, and properly vouched.

Boston, May 24th, 1855.

JULIUS A. PALMER, }
L. T. STODDARD, } Auditors.